

"Hart Lake Paddlefest Rules and Registration

Downtown Hart, MI August 18, 2018 8:30-11:30

Rain date is August 25

Launching at John Gurney Park, Boat Launch
Woodlawn Avenue access

This is a FREE event, but you must follow the rules and sign a liability waiver to participate.

The Hart Lake Paddlefest will enter John Gurney Park at Woodlawn Avenue and be directed to the launch and parking by Paddlefest volunteers. Paddlers will be given rules and directions to participate in the Hart Lake Paddle Games, and begin launching at 9:00. The launching will end at 10:30. There will be prizes for winners of the game, along with door prizes, and hot dogs and t-shirts for completing the course.

The Hart Lake Paddlefest will include paddlers in their own canoes, kayaks or paddleboards, and participants who would like to have complimentary use of kayaks that will be available for the event. Paddlers will be invited participate in the Hart Lake Paddle Game, a game consisting of learning and chance, visiting 5 marked stops on Hart Lake and receiving a card at each stop to accumulate points and learn some fun facts about Hart Lake. Participants points will be counted when they complete the course, and the paddler with the highest score will win first prize, the second highest will win second prize, and the lowest score will win third prize. In the event of a tie, a question about the game will be asked and the participant with the correct answer will be the winner.

Life Jackets and Appropriate Attire must be Worn During Paddlefest!

You will need to agree to abide by the safety rules and/or guidelines governing the Hart Lake Paddlefest, and the rules and regulations pertaining to Hart Lake as set forth by the City of Hart.

You must also agree to sign the Assumption of Risk and Complete Release of Liability Waiver in order to participate. If a minor participates, a legal guardian will need to sign the waiver on his or her behalf. Children must be at least 12 years old.
